The requirements in this Quality Assurance – Quality Clause Addendum are in addition to the requirements in 09492L00008, General Atomics Electromagnetic Systems Standard Quality Clauses ("Quality Requirements").

During the execution of the Program/Project or Prime Contract referenced above, the Buyer's customer may modify the requirements with additional terms; therefore, the Buyer reserves the right to amend the Quality Requirements as the Buyer deems reasonably necessary to comply with the modified requirements.

ADDITIONAL QUALITY REQUIREMENTS:

Seller and/or its sub-tier suppliers shall generate and maintain evidence of product conformity. The Seller and/or its sub-tier suppliers shall perform inspection for all associated features and characteristics that are present in the drawings and specifications as follows:

Features/attributes/requirements classified as Critical and Major on the drawing(s) or within the technical specification shall be inspected 100%.

Unless otherwise specified in the drawings and specifications, attributes for plating, hardness, and NDT shall be inspected 100%. This requirement is not applicable to Commercially available off-the-shelf (COTS) items, as defined in Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR) Subpart 2.101, "Definitions".

The Seller and/or its sub-tier suppliers shall record and retain the results of these inspections (actual readings and/or documented measurements and supporting quality documentation) and provide to the buyer upon request.
